Numb. 13457.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 8, to Tuesday September 11, 1792.

Whitehall, September 11.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Cheſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Cheſter, beg Leave to offer unto your Majeſty our ſincere and unfeigned Thanks for the many and repeated Inſtances of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, and particularly for that recent and ſignal one, evinced in the ſeaſonably iſſuing of your late moſt gracious Proclamation.

Senſible as we have at all Times been of the great Happineſs and Security we derive from our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, yet we have learned to fix an additional Value upon it from contraſting our preſent Situation with that of ſurrounding Nations.

With a Concern and Indignation, therefore, proportionate to the Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy, have we beheld the late Attempts that have been made to diſparage and undermine it, by Publications and Practices, calculated to excite unreaſonable Diſcontent, miſlead the Ignorant, and introduce Principles utterly ſubverſive of all good Order and Government.

Such Principles and ſuch Practices, as it is our Duty, ſo will it be our conſtant Endeavour to diſcountenance and counteract, as far as our Influence may extend; and eſpecially by inculcating upon the Minds of the People committed to our Care, the Love of Peace and good Order, Obedience to the Laws, and a Veneration for that mild and equitable Form of Government, under which they are ſo eminently proſperous and happy.

We have only to add, that it is our earneſt Wiſh and Prayer that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in the Hearts, and to experience the Duty and Affection of a free, loyal, and grateful People.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Cheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorſet, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude for the Anxiety your Majeſty has ever expreſſed in promoting the real Good and Happineſs of your People, and more eſpecially for the late particular Inſtance of your paternal Care, conveyed to us by your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation.

We alſo beg Leave moſt humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and to every Branch of your illuſtrious Houſe, and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport and defend that happy Conſtitution, both in Church and State, which, by the Bleſſing of Providence, we now enjoy under your gracious Protection; a Conſtitution admired by all good Subjects, and envied by the whole World.

[Tranſmitted by Charles Sturt, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Sutherland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Sutherland, beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Satisfaction at the wiſe and ſalutary Meaſure which your Majeſty has recently adopted for the Purpoſe of diſcouraging the wicked Attempts of the Enemies of the Britiſh Conſtitution. We are zealouſly attached to that Conſtitution, from a full Conviction

[Price Eight-pence.]

Conviction of it's Excellence, founded on a long Experience of it's happy Effects. We see that under it the British Nation has risen to a Degree of Prosperity and Splendour, which no Country, without the benignant Influence of a good Government, could ever have attained. Having learned to estimate it's Value, we cannot but be anxious for it's Preservation. We shall therefore co-operate, as far as in us lies, with your Majesty's gracious Views, by guarding against and counteracting every Attempt to disturb that social Order, without which Liberty cannot subsist.

May your Majesty long continue to enjoy the Satisfaction, which results to a good King, from the increasing Prosperity of an united, free and loyal People.

Signed by our Press in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Dornock, this 14th Day of August, 1792 Years.

John Gordon, P.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-General Grant, Representative in Parliament for that County.]
